

On the next pages, locate the exact model of the device to be copied among those in the compatibility list and click on the image to start the video tutorial.

The video tutorial will illustrate one of three possible learning procedures:

Direct operation procedure

The newly copied button is immediately functional with the original receiver

S.A.M. (Smart Auto Memorisation) Procedure

The key just copied needs to be memorised in the original receiver by holding down the key at a distance of 30 cm for about 10 seconds

Procedure by acting on the receiver

The button just copied needs to be stored manually in the original receiver. Follow the receiver's instructions

WARNING: The video tutorial explains the procedure to be followed for duplication, but the appearance of the remote control displayed may not exactly match the product in use.
